

POTENTIAL COMPLICATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH PERIOcular REPOSITORY CORTICOSTEROID INJECTION(S)

1. Inadvertent injection into the choroidal or retinal circulation, emboli
2. Perforation of the globe with permanent loss of vision/loss of eye
3. Cataract
4. Glaucoma (increased eye pressure) in injected/other eye that may be transient or permanent and could lead to medical or surgical treatment (i.e., excision of depot or glaucoma filtering operation)
5. Blepharoptosis
6. Proptosis
7. Orbital fat atrophy, fibrosis
8. Delayed hypersensitivity reactions
9. Strabismus
10. Conjunctival hemorrhage
11. Chemosis
12. Infection
13. Pain from injection, syncope, adhesions, worsening of condition, Cushing's Syndrome, pupillary dilatation

Patient Signature (or Person Authorized to Sign for Patient)

Date